Dear Sir

G-BRRA SPITFIRE LF IX C S/N CBAF 8185

Please find enclosed Certificate of Registration number G-BRRA/R6 in respect of the above aircraft. According to our records this transaction took 1 day to complete, this is based on the time taken from receipt of all the relevant information required, to its despatch by email. Our service standards can be viewed on our website at www.caa.co.uk/aircraftregister.

This aircraft is allocated with ICAO 24-bit aircraft address 010000000110010111101010 (hex 4065EA). If you intend using this address on a Mode S transponder or electronic locator transmitter please see the guidance at Spectrum and Frequency Management | Civil Aviation Authority \(caa.co.uk\)

New owners are reminded that once they become the owner of a UK Registered aircraft that they are responsible for ensuring that the aircraft is fully maintained and operated in line with the requirements of the Certificate of Airworthiness or Permit to Fly issued by the UK CAA. All issues surrounding the airworthiness of UK Registered aircraft are dealt with by the Aircraft Certification Department of the CAA or the appropriate recommending organisation for your aircraft, the Aircraft Certification Department can be contacted on tel 0330 022 1908, email apply@caa.co.uk or see www.caa.co.uk/airworthiness for further information.

Information concerning the airworthiness of aircraft is published in the Air Navigation Order (CAP 393) www.caa.co.uk/cap393, Civil Aircraft Airworthiness Information and Procedures (CAAIP) (CAP 562) www.caa.co.uk/cap562 and in the Mandatory Requirements for Airworthiness (CAP 747) www.caa.co.uk/cap747.

Certain classes of UK Registered, such as Annex 1 balloons and “single seat de-regulated microlights” can fly on private flight on flights beginning and ending within the United Kingdom without passing over any other country without having a valid Certificate of Airworthiness or Permit to Fly in place. If you have any queries as to whether your aircraft falls into one of these categories please contact the Aircraft Certification Department as detailed earlier.

Should you require guidance on the display of nationality and registration marks on your aircraft please refer to CAP 523, this is available for viewing and printing via the CAA website at www.caa.co.uk/cap523.

The Electronic certificate is valid as the original document in its digital form. The Electronic Certificate of Registration satisfies the on-board carriage requirements for aircraft engaged in international air navigation in accordance with UK Air Navigation Order (ANO) Article 229, Regulation (EU) No 965/2012 Air Operations and Article 29 of the Convention on International Civil Aviation as well as the requirements of Annex 7 to the same Convention. As such Certificates of Registration will no longer be issued in their printed form although if required the electronic document can be printed locally.

Yours faithfully
